MEDVIA
The innovation cluster for better health

SMART HUB

FLEMISH BRABANT

Previously known as Life on Chip, the HealthTech Summit reunites national and international experts and VCs in medtech, biotech, digital health and patient care to examine the current state, discuss the future of collaborative innovation and connecting with patients and healthcare providers.

It is co-hosted by Smart Hub Flemish Brabant and cluster organization MEDVIA (previously Flanders.healthTech), with the support and advice of Flanders.bio, VIB, BioWin, VLAIO and the EIT Health.
